

VOCABULARY Feelings

STEP 1 CHECK THE BASICS

1 Put the adjectives in the correct categories.

sad excited unhappy happy scared confident angry pleased disappointed

Positive emotion ☺: excited happy satisfied pleased

Negative emotion ☹: sad unhappy scared angry disappointed

STEP 2 MOVE ON

Memory

2 Unscramble the letters. Write the words.

1 DAELACRN NEOPATMINTP appointment
6 LACLER

2 FEGRTIO CORRED
3 MEIROMZE 8 MEMBREE record

4 RYEMOM 9 NDEMRI memory
5 MIDN mind

3 Complete the sentences with the words in the list.

appointment day memorize memory mind
remember

1 She has a brilliant mind and a very lively imagination.

2 Do you remember the day we first met?

3 He hasn't got a very good memory for names.
4 Memorize all the words before the exam.

5 Jo's got all the exam dates in her diary.
6 I've got a dental appointment at 3 o'clock.

4 Complete the words.

1 I never f...t...a...e...t... my Mum's birthday.
2 Have you got a c...l...n...d...t... for 2012?

3 I don't r...e...l...l... seeing you at the meeting.
4 You r...m...l...d... me of my sister.

5 You r...e...d... your expenses on this form.
6 The teacher has told us to learn the poem b...x...

Adjectives of emotion

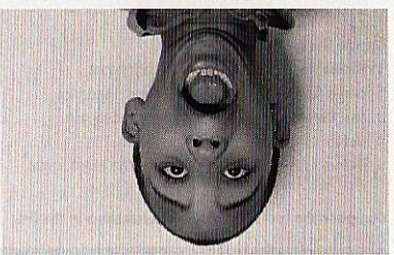

5 Put the words in the correct column.

astonished cross delighted surprised terrified furious glad miserable surprised depressed frightened ordinary adjective extreme adjective

surprised	delighted	amazed
pleased	glad	thrilled
scared	frightened	terrified
angry	cross	furious
sad	depressed	miserable

6 Complete the dialogues with a suitable adjective. There may be more than one possible answer.

- Are you scared of snakes?
B Scared? I'm absolutely terrified!
- You must have been angry when your sister broke your guitar.
B Angry? I was furious!
- Were you surprised when they offered you the job?
B Surprised? I was amazed/astonished!
- Do you think she'll be sad when she gets the bad news?
B Sad? She'll be miserable!
- Pleased? I'm delighted/thrilled!

Idioms and expressions: Feelings

7 Complete the sentences with the correct form of a verb from A and words from B and C.

A (not) believe be be burst go
B bright my into over scared
C eyes red stiff tears the moon

- I was astonished to see her.
I couldn't believe my eyes.
- We were terrified during the film.
We were scared stiff.
- The team was thrilled.
They were over the moon.
- I felt so emotional that I burst into tears.
- It was a very embarrassing moment.
He went bright red.

Adjectives ending in -ed or -ing

8 Choose the correct adjectives.

- Are you surprised / surprising to see me?
- Their last album was really bored / boring.
- I felt so embarrassed / embarrassing when I didn't know the answer.
- He told me a really amused / amusing story the other day.
- My mum said that she was disappointed / disappointing in me.
- I've seen more frightened / frightening films than that one.

- The classes were boring. I felt really bored.
- We were disappointed with the result. Our team's performance was disappointing.
- She found herself in an embarrassing situation and felt completely embarrassed.
- Personally, I wasn't frightened, but some people said it was a frightening experience. (frighten)
- Alicia seemed surprised when I told her the news, although I didn't find it surprising.
- The students thought it was an amusing practical joke but the teachers were not amused. (amuse)

Forming adverbs from adjectives

10 Make adverbs from the adjectives in the lists and put the words in the correct columns.

angry confident guilty responsible sudden surprising fantastic

add -ly	take off -e	take off -y	add -ally
surprisingly	comfortably	easily	fantastically
confidently	responsibly	angrily	enthusiastically
evidently	guiltily

fast tremly hard late tweely silly straight well

adverbial phrase	same as adjective	different from adjective
in a lively way	fast	well
in a friendly way	kind
in a silly way	late straight

STEP 3 CONSOLIDATE

11 Complete the text with the correct adverb form of the bold adjectives or choose the correct option.

When I am 18, I want to learn to drive. My father drives very (1) well (good) but too (2) fast (fast). (3) angrily / easily at other drivers, which I don't like. I like people to drive (4) confidently (confident) and (5) responsibly (responsible). My mother works very (6) hard / hardly and has to drive a lot in her job. She listens to music in the car and sings (7) enthusiastically (enthusiastic). It's so (8) embarrassed / embarrassing (embarrass) When I take my driving test I'll have to (9) memorize (memorize) memory all the speed limits and rules.